

Emmett J. Ward

Emmett J. Ward is an ADR Resources Coordinator for the Maryland Judiciary's Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office (MACRO). In that capacity, he assists in managing a wide variety of projects, including ADDRESS; a web-based data collection and reporting system, designed to help courts assess and improve the quality of their ADR processes. Emmett came to MACRO from the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, where he served as a staff mediator, mediating hundreds of cases. Emmett holds a Master's Degree in Conflict Analysis and Dispute Resolution from Salisbury University and is a former AmeriCorps member with the Community Mediation Initiative at the Bosserman Center for Conflict Resolution. He is a past member of the Board of Directors for Community Mediation Maryland and a current volunteer mediator for the District Court in Baltimore City. Show Bio
