

Geetha Ravindra is an attorney, mediator and trainer with over 20 years of experience in the field of Alternative Dispute Resolution. She is currently the Mediator for the International Monetary Fund. Geetha served as Director of the Department of Dispute Resolution Services at the Supreme Court of Virginia from 1996-2007 and managed the Dalkon Shield Arbitration Program at the Private Adjudication Center 1992-1996. She was an Adjunct Professor at the University of Richmond School of Law and the College of William and Mary Law School teaching mediation from 2008 - 2012. Geetha has mediated family cases for the Richmond City Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court for over fifteen years and has served as a mediator and trainer for the World Bank and several federal and state agencies. Geetha is past Chair of the American Bar Association Section of Dispute Resolution. She is also Past Chair of the Virginia State Bar – Virginia Bar Association ADR Committee, Past President of Virginia Mediation Network, and the past Chair of the Virginia State Bar Attorney Client Fee Dispute Resolution Program. Geetha provided several mediation skills training programs in India and helped develop the Court-connected mediation program in Chennai.