

Hon. Rosemarie Annunziata (Ret.) has enjoyed a career of over 35 years that encompasses a wide spectrum of legal services. She began her practice as a civil litigator and continues today as a senior judge with the Virginia Court of Appeals, while serving as a mediator and arbitrator with JAMS. She has also held two local government positions in Fairfax County where she served as a member of the County's Planning Commission which is responsible for advising the County Board of Supervisors on its land use and development decisions and she has served as Chair of the County's Civil Service Commission since 2006.

As an ADRs provider, she has been selected to serve throughout the District of Columbia metropolitan area in complex commercial, business, and employment matters, as well as in cases involving consumer protection claims, family disputes, homeowners association and building construction issues, as well as health care issues. She is a former member of the International Association of Women Judges, Board of Managerial Trustees, the former chair of Virginia's Joint Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and former member of the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution Publications Board.

- J.D., The American University, Washington School of Law, 1978
- M.A., Yale University, 1967
- B.A., Phi Beta Kappa, Elmira College, Elmira, NY, 1962; Sorbonne, Paris, France, 1960-1961