

Michael Rooney is the Vice President and General Counsel of Manhattan Construction Group (MCG) and Rooney Holdings Inc. (RHI), dealing in a wide array of construction and infrastructure based legal issues. MCG primarily operates in Oklahoma, Texas, Florida, and the D.C./Maryland/Virginia area as well as spot projects in Mexico, Panama, and throughout the Caribbean. Additionally, Michael's practice involves construction/real estate development deals in Virginia and D.C., and managing international investments and real estate for RHI in Latin America and Spain.

Michael began his legal career with the Global Disputes Practice Group of Jones Day, working on international arbitration and litigation matters. Michael focus was primarily Latin America and secondarily in Western and Southern Africa.

- J.D., University of Notre Dame Law School, 2009
- B.A., History and English, University of Notre Dame, 2006
- Barred in Maryland and D.C.