

Toby Treem Guerin, J.D. is the Managing Director for the Center for Dispute Resolution at Maryland Carey School of Law and Clinical Instructor. Ms. Guerin has over fifteen years experience as a neutral in various venues including government agencies, non-profit organizations, schools, and court systems. She served as the first chairperson of the Mediator Excellence Council, a mediator quality assistance initiative in Maryland and is the primary author of the Maryland ADR Landscape, a comprehensive overview of court-affiliated ADR programs in Maryland. She is a trained mediator, facilitator, conflict-coach, ombudsperson, and restorative practitioner. She regularly trains on topics from basic to advanced mediation, giving and receiving feedback, and negotiation.