

Trish Weaver

Principal

301-951-9360

301-654-7354 FAX

tweaver@paleyrothman.com

Trish Weaver is Chair of the Appellate Practice group and a member of the Commercial Litigation group for the law firm Paley Rothman in Bethesda, Maryland. Trish has participated in countless mediations as counsel for a party and also has served as a mediator by court appointment and by private engagement for over a decade. Trish is the author of various articles in The Maryland Bar Journal and other publications on the advantages of a mediated resolution in business disputes. Over the past 20 years, Trish has handled numerous appeals, as well as civil cases spanning the civil spectrum, with a concentration on complex commercial litigation and estate litigation. In addition to her numerous appearances in state and federal trial courts, she has represented physicians, psychologists, and lawyers before disciplinary boards. Trish served as President of the Montgomery County Bar Association, and she currently serves as the Chair of the Maryland State Bar Association Ethics Committee.